

Romans 11:25-36 New International reader's Version (NIRV)

²⁵ Brothers and sisters, here is a mystery I want you to understand. It will keep you from being proud. Part of Israel has refused to obey God. That will continue until the full number of Gentiles has entered God's kingdom. ²⁶ In this way all Israel will be saved. It is written,

“The God who saves will come from Mount Zion.
He will remove sin from Jacob's family.

²⁷ Here is my covenant with them.
I will take away their sins.”

²⁸ As far as the good news is concerned, the people of Israel are enemies. This is for your good. But as far as God's choice is concerned, the people of Israel are loved. This is because of God's promises to the founders of our nation. ²⁹ God does not take back his gifts. He does not change his mind about those he has chosen. ³⁰ At one time you did not obey God. But now you have received mercy because Israel did not obey. ³¹ In the same way, Israel has not been obeying God. But now they receive mercy because of God's mercy to you. ³² God has found everyone guilty of not obeying him. So now he can have mercy on everyone.

³³ How very rich are God's wisdom and knowledge!
How he judges is more than we can understand!
The way he deals with people is more than we can know!

³⁴ “Who can ever know what the Lord is thinking?
Or who can ever give him advice?”

³⁵ “Has anyone ever given back to God,
so that God has to pay them back?”

³⁶ All things come from him.
All things are directed by him.
All things are for his praise.
May God be given the glory forever! Amen.
