

Romans 15:1-7 New International reader's Version (NIRV)

⁸ I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews. He teaches us that God is true. He shows us that God will keep the promises he made to the founders of our nation. ⁹ Jesus became a servant of the Jews. He did this so that the Gentiles might give glory to God for his mercy. It is written,

“I will praise you among the Gentiles.
I will sing the praises of your name.”

¹⁰ Again it says,

“You Gentiles, be full of joy.
Be joyful together with God's people.”

¹¹ And again it says,

“All you Gentiles, praise the Lord.
Let all the nations sing praises to him.”

¹² And Isaiah says,

“The Root of Jesse will grow up quickly.
He will rule over the nations.
The Gentiles will put their hope in him.”

¹³ May the God who gives hope fill you with great joy. May you have perfect peace as you trust in him. May the power of the Holy Spirit fill you with hope.
