

Matthew 28:18-20 New International reader's Version (NirV)

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus came to them. He said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup> So you must go and make disciples of all nations. Baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup> Teach them to obey everything I have commanded you. And you can be sure that I am always with you, to the very end."

1 Cor. 9:19-23 New International reader's Version (NirV)

<sup>19</sup> I am free and don't belong to anyone. But I have made myself a slave to everyone. I do it to win as many as I can to Christ. <sup>20</sup> To the Jews I became like a Jew. That was to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one who was under the law. I did this even though I myself am not under the law. That was to win those under the law. <sup>21</sup> To those who don't have the law I became like one who doesn't have the law. I did this even though I am not free from God's law. I am under Christ's law. Now I can win those who don't have the law. <sup>22</sup> To those who are weak I became weak. That was to win the weak. I have become all things to all people. I have done this so that in all possible ways I might save some. <sup>23</sup> I do all this because of the good news. And I want to share in its blessings.
