

Romans 10:1-13 New International reader's Version (NIRV)

¹Brothers and sisters, with all my heart I long for the people of Israel to be saved. I pray to God for them.

²I can tell you for certain that they really want to serve God. But how they are trying to do it is not based on knowledge. ³They didn't know that God's power makes people right with himself. They tried to get right with God in their own way. They didn't do it in God's way.

⁴Christ has fulfilled everything the law was meant to do. So now everyone who believes can be right with God.

⁵Moses writes about how the law could help a person do what God requires. He writes, "The person who does these things will live by them." ⁶But the way to do what God requires must begin by having faith in him. Scripture says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will go up into heaven?'" That means to go up into heaven and bring Christ down. ⁷And do not say, "Who will go down into the grave?" That means to bring Christ up from the dead.

⁸But what does it say? "The message is near you. It's in your mouth and in your heart." This means the message about faith that we are preaching. ⁹Say with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord." Believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead. Then you will be saved. ¹⁰With your heart you believe and are made right with God. With your mouth you say what you believe. And so you are saved.

¹¹Scripture says, "The one who believes in him will never be put to shame." ¹²There is no difference between those who are Jews and those who are not. The same Lord is Lord of all. He richly blesses everyone who calls on him.

¹³Scripture says, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."
