"Should I Stay Or Should I Go?"

Pastor Nate Keeler

Ruth 1:6:11, 16-19 New International reader's Version (NIRV)

⁶While Naomi was in Moab, she heard that the LORD had helped his people. He had begun to provide food for them again. So Naomi and her two daughters-in-law prepared to go from Moab back to her home. ⁷She left the place where she had been living. Her daughters-in-law went with her. They started out on the road that would take them back to the land of Judah.

⁸Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Both of you go back. Each of you go to your own mother's home. You were kind to your husbands, who have died. You have also been kind to me. So may the LORD be just as kind to you. ⁹May the LORD help each of you find rest in the home of another husband."

Then she kissed them goodbye. They broke down and wept loudly. ¹⁰They said to her, "We'll go back to your people with you."

¹¹But Naomi said, "Go home, my daughters. Why should you come with me? Am I going to have any more sons who could become your husbands?"

¹⁶But Ruth replied, "Don't try to make me leave you and go back. Where you go I'll go. Where you stay I'll stay. Your people will be my people. Your God will be my God. ¹⁷Where you die I'll die. And there my body will be buried. I won't let even death separate you from me. If I do, may the LORD punish me greatly." ¹⁸Naomi realized that Ruth had made up her mind to go with her. So she stopped trying to make her go back.
