"Don't You Forget About Me"

Pastor Nate Keeler

Ruth 2:1-5, 8, 19-20, 22-23 NIV

<sup>1</sup> Naomi had a relative on her husband's side of the family. The relative's name was Boaz. He was a very important man from the family of Elimelek.

<sup>2</sup> Ruth, who was from Moab, spoke to Naomi. Ruth said, "let me go out to the fields. I'll pick up the grain that has been left. I'll do it behind anyone who is pleased with me."

Naomi said to her, "My daughter, go ahead." <sup>3</sup> So Ruth went out to a field and began to pick up grain. She worked behind those cutting and gathering the grain. As it turned out, she was working in a field that belonged to Boaz. He was from the family of Elimelek.

<sup>4</sup> Just then Boaz arrived from Bethlehem. He greeted those cutting and gathering the grain. He said, "May the LORD be with you!" "And may the LORD bless you!" they replied. <sup>5</sup> Boaz spoke to the man in charge of his workers. He asked, "Who does that young woman belong to?"

<sup>8</sup> So Boaz said to Ruth, "Dear woman, listen to me. Don't pick up grain in any other field. Don't go anywhere else. Stay here with the women who work for me."

<sup>19</sup> Her mother-in-law asked her, "Where did you pick up grain today? Where did you work? May the man who notice you be blessed!" Then Ruth told her about the man whose field she had worked in. "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz," she said. <sup>20</sup> "May the LORD bless him!" Naomi said to her daughter-in-law. "The LORD is still being kind to those who are living and those who are dead." She continued, "That man is a close relative of ours. He's one of our family protectors." ... <sup>22</sup> She said, "Go with the women who work for him. You might be harmed if you go to someone else's field." <sup>23</sup> So Ruth stayed close to the women who worked for Boaz as she picked up grain. She worked until the time when all the barley and wheat had been harvested. And she lived with her mother-in-law.
