The One Where Peter Gets It Right and Wrong

Pastor Todd Johnson

Mark 8:27-38 New International reader's Version (NirV)

<sup>27</sup> Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked them, "Who do people say I am?" <sup>28</sup> They replied, "Some say John the Baptist. Others say Elijah. Still others say one of the prophets." <sup>29</sup> "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Messiah." <sup>30</sup> Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

<sup>31</sup> Jesus then began to teach his disciples. He taught them that the Son of Man must suffer many things. He taught them that the elders would not accept him. The chief priests and the teachers of the law would not accept him either. He must be killed and after three days rise again.

<sup>32</sup> He spoke clearly about this. Peter took Jesus to one side and began to scold him.

<sup>33</sup> Jesus turned and looked at his disciples. He scolded Peter. "Get behind me, Satan!" he said. "You are not thinking about the things God cares about. Instead, you are thinking only about the things humans care about."

<sup>34</sup> Jesus called the crowd to him along with his disciples. He said, "Whoever wants to be my disciple must say no to themselves. They must pick up their cross and follow me.

<sup>35</sup> Whoever wants to save their life will lose it. But whoever loses their life for me and for the good news will save it.

<sup>36</sup> What good is it if someone gains the whole world but loses their soul? <sup>37</sup> Or what can anyone trade for their soul? <sup>38</sup> Suppose anyone is ashamed of me and my words among these adulterous and sinful people. Then the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when he comes in his Father's glory with the holy angels.
