The One about Divorce
Pastor Nate Keeler

Mark 10:1-12 (New International Readers Version)

¹ Jesus left that place and went into the area of Judea and across the Jordan River. Again crowds of people came to him. As usual, he taught them.

² Some Pharisees came to test Jesus. They asked, "Does the Law allow a man to divorce his wife?"

³ "What did Moses command you?" he replied.

⁴ They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a letter of divorce and send her away."

⁵ "You were stubborn. That's why Moses wrote you this law," Jesus replied. ⁶ "But at the beginning of creation, God 'made them male and female.'

⁷ 'That's why a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife. ⁸ The two of them will become one.' They are no longer two, but one. ⁹ So no one should separate what God has joined together."

¹⁰ When they were in the house again, the disciples asked Jesus about this. ¹¹ He answered, "What if a man divorces his wife and gets married to another woman? He commits adultery against her. ¹² And what if she divorces her husband and gets married to another man? She commits adultery."
