The One about Vineyard Workers

Pastor Nate Keeler

Mark 12:1-12 (New International Readers Version)

¹ Jesus began to speak to the people using stories. He said, "A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it. He dug a pit for a winepress. He also built a lookout tower. He rented the vineyard out to some farmers. Then he went to another place. ²At harvest time he sent a servant to the renters. He told the servant to collect from them some of the fruit of the vineyard. ³But they grabbed the servant and beat him up. Then they sent him away with nothing. ⁴So the man sent another servant to the renters. They hit this one on the head and treated him badly. ⁵The man sent still another servant. The renters killed him. The man sent many others. The renters beat up some of them. They killed the others.

⁶"The man had one person left to send. It was his son, and he loved him. He sent him last of all. He said, 'They will respect my son.' ⁷But the renters said to each other, 'This is the one who will receive all the owner's property someday. Come, let's kill him. Then everything will be ours.' ⁸So they took him and killed him. They threw him out of the vineyard.

⁹"What will the owner of the vineyard do then? He will come and kill those renters. He will give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰Haven't you read what this part of Scripture says, 'The stone the builders didn't accept has become the most important stone of all. The Lord has done it. It is wonderful in our eyes?'"

¹² Then the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders looked for a way to arrest Jesus. They knew he had told the story against them. But they were afraid of the crowd. So they left him and went away.
