The Denial

Pastor Nate Keeler

Mark 14:66-72 (New International Readers Version)

<sup>66</sup> Peter was below in the courtyard. One of the high priest's female servants came by. <sup>67</sup> When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him.

"You also were with Jesus, that Nazarene," she said.

<sup>68</sup> But Peter said he had not been with him. "I don't understand what you're talking about," he said. He went out to the entrance to the courtyard.

<sup>69</sup> The servant saw him there. She said again to those standing around, "This fellow is one of them." <sup>70</sup> Again he said he was not.

After a little while, those standing nearby said to Peter, "You must be one of them. You are from Galilee."

<sup>71</sup> Then Peter began to curse. He said to them, "I don't know this man you're talking about!"

<sup>72</sup> Right away the rooster crowed the second time. Then Peter remembered what Jesus had spoken to him. "The rooster will crow twice," he had said. "Before it does, you will say three times that you don't know me." Peter broke down and cried.
