The Antidote to Bitterness

Pastor Nate Keeler

Passages from Psalm 73 (New International Readers Version)

- ¹God is truly good to Israel.
He is good to those who have pure hearts.
- ²But my feet had almost slipped.
I had almost tripped and fallen.
- ³I saw that the proud and sinful people were doing well.
And I began to long for what they had.
- ⁴They don't have any troubles.
Their bodies are healthy and strong.
- ⁵They don't have the problems most people have.
They don't suffer as other people do.
- ⁶Their pride is like a necklace.
They put on meanness as if it were clothes.
- ¹⁶I tried to understand it all.
But it was more than I could handle.
- ¹⁷It troubled me until I entered God's temple.
Then I understood what will finally happen to bad people.
- ²³But I am always with you.
You hold me by my right hand.
- ²⁴You give me wise advice to guide me.
And when I die, you will take me away
into the glory of heaven.
- ²⁵I don't have anyone in heaven but you.
I don't want anything on earth besides you.
- ²⁶My body and my heart may grow weak.
God, you give strength to my heart.
You are everything I will ever need.
- ²⁷Those who don't want anything to do with you will die.
You destroy all those who aren't faithful to you.
- ²⁸But I am close to you. And that's good.
LORD and King, I have made you my place of safety.
I will talk about everything you have done.
