

Selections from Proverbs 18 (New International Readers Version)

¹A person who isn't friendly looks out for themselves. They oppose all good sense by starting fights.

⁴The words of a person's mouth are like deep water. But the fountain of wisdom is like a flowing stream.

¹⁰The name of the LORD is like a strong tower. Godly people run to it and are safe.

¹⁶A gift opens the door and helps the giver meet important people.

¹⁹A broken friendship is harder to handle than a city with high walls around it. And arguing is like the locked gates of a mighty city.

²⁰Because of what they say a person can fill their stomach. What their words produce can satisfy them.

²¹Your tongue has the power of life and death. Those who love to talk will eat the fruit of their words.

²⁴A person with unfaithful friends soon comes to ruin. But there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.
