

¹David finished talking with Saul. After that, Jonathan and David became close friends. Jonathan loved David just as he loved himself. ²From that time on, Saul kept David with him. He didn't let him return home to his family. ³Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him just as he loved himself. ⁴Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David. He also gave him his military clothes. He even gave him his sword, his bow and his belt.

¹²Then Jonathan spoke to David. He said, "I promise you that I'll find out what my father is planning to do. I'll find out by this time the day after tomorrow. The LORD, the God of Israel, is my witness. Suppose my father has kind feelings toward you. Then I'll send you a message and let you know. ¹³But suppose he wants to harm you. And I don't let you know about it. Suppose I don't help you get away in peace. Then may the LORD punish me greatly. May he be with you, just as he has been with my father. ¹⁴But always be kind to me, just as the LORD is. Be kind to me as long as I live. Then I won't be killed. ¹⁵And never stop being kind to my family. Don't stop even when the LORD has cut off every one of your enemies from the face of the earth."

¹⁶So Jonathan made a covenant of friendship with David and his family. He said, "May the LORD hold David's enemies responsible for what they've done." ¹⁷Jonathan had David promise his friendship again because he loved him. In fact, Jonathan loved David just as he loved himself."
